

Bette Robinson ha ventisette anni, vive in un passabile appartamento di New York, ha un lavoro sicuro e noioso e sogna ostinatamente di trovare il principe azzurro. Quando la sua migliore amica le annuncia il suo fidanzamento si rende conto che forse è giunto il momento di dare una svolta alla propria vita. Ecco perché non crede alla sua fortuna quando viene assunta dalla più famosa agenzia di pubbliche relazioni di Manhattan con il compito di organizzare i party più esclusivi. Accantonati tailleur e mocassini, in equilibrio su vertiginosi tacchi a spillo, ben presto Bette diventa una delle migliori nel suo campo, attenta a ogni dettaglio e capace di esaudire qualunque capriccio. Ma una mattina, dopo una festa, si ritrova nel letto del playboy più ambito della città. È vestita solo di un paio di boxer Dolce & Gabbana e capisce di essere in un mare di guai. Bastano poche ore perché il suo nome finisca sulle copertine di tutti i rotocalchi che titolano a grandi lettere: Ecco la donna che ha rimpiazzato Gwyneth Paltrow. Per l'agenzia e un trionfo, il ritorno di pubblicità è immenso. Ma per Bette è un vero inferno. Per assecondare la sua carriera sta pian piano perdendo il controllo della sua vita?
