

Broken-hearted and bitter, Brenna Jones plans to spend Valentine's weekend at her parents' cabin, reading romance novels and devouring heart-shaped candy. When her truck hits a snowdrift and plows into a bank during a storm, no less her plans take a drastic detour. Eric Buchanan, the playboy jerk from her past, comes to her aid. He's her only option for reaching safety. Eric can't wait to escape his parents' latest attempt to set him up. He's given up on happiness, knowing he blew his chance at love a decade ago. When his snowmobile ride turns into a harrying escape from a blizzard, he discovers Brenna stranded in the storm. After he ensures her safety, he plans to explain the misunderstanding that tore them apart. Can a secluded cabin help Eric convince Brenna to be his love?
