

A compelling and fast moving book that unveils the real story about Paul VI and how the Vatican confederacy used him to advance their own progressivist designs. It brings into focus the hidden plan to alter the liturgy before Pope Paul was elected, and presents the facts concerning the true origin of the modern Mass and how the pope actually fought against this. It exposes the faces and profiles behind the untold plot to censor and forge Pope Paul's mail, and presents forensic evidence to substantiate the allegations that Paul VI was drugged while an impersonator misrepresented him before the public. In addition, this book cites the many accomplishments of Paul VI, and shows the extraordinary extent he went to in proselytizing the public even before he was pope. It also quotes from his many speeches and letters and features a chapter just on his Humanae Vitae, held by many to be a spiritual milestone of the 20th century. In this manner it provides a timely meditation during the present crisis which he labored so assiduously to avert. Riveting! Hard Hitting! Bound to captivate!
