

Connie Monk is a wonderful storyteller and this new novel will delight her many fans. On a golden summers morning in 1914, Sophie awoke to the joyful realization that it was her wedding day. The youngest child of Justin and Hilda Pickering, she had lived all her life at Minton House in the Devon village of Otterton St Giles, together with her brothers, Sandy and Jeremy, and sister, Ellen. Sophie was to marry Sandys old schoolfriend, Roger Eddiford, who had lived in the village with his Aunt Dolly since he was ten years old. But as the young couple settle down in Pedlars Cottage, war breaks out and all their lives change forever...
