

The closets a tough place to be for a pro hockey player...Rising star Blair Boyer cant stand his new teammate. Hes loud, arrogant, and thinks that just because hes big he can throw his weight around. But Blair has bigger problems to worry about, like trying to hide his sexual orientation from his teammates. Separated from his pack, a lone alpha whose wolf is slowly going mad...Nikita Tarasov: brash, tattooed, Russian. Hes the latest acquisition of the Seattle Breakers hockey team, but hes hiding a secret that cant get out. Hes a lone wolf, an alpha separated from his pack. And that separation is driving the wolf inside him crazy. Then Blair makes a discovery that could get him killed.Blair and Nikita butt heads at first, but its undeniable: they have incredible chemistry on the ice. And maybe off it, too. Until Blair accidentally stumbles over Nikitas secret one night. Now the man he was determined to ignore holds Blairs life in his claws. As the attraction between them slowly develops and sizzles, Blair has a lot to worry about: theres a reporter sniffing around, his werewolf teammate might murder him, and he has to hide his entire life from his team. Sooner or later its all going to come crashing down... Power Forward is a 45,000 word stand-alone short novel with NO CLIFFHANGER. Contains plenty of hard-hitting hockey action and steamy scenes between an alpha wolf shifter and his chosen mate.
