

When I looked at Kaylie, I couldn't help but picture a future with her. I saw us dating, falling in love, and maybe even growing old together. Those dreams were a stark contrast from reality. And while I knew it would be easier in the long run for us to keep our distance, I no longer cared about making things easy. I wanted to hold her, wanted to kiss her. I wanted her to know how I felt about her. Maybe I would end up regretting that decision, but I didn't care. I wanted to live, even if I died in the process. ---Shades of Evil is a Soul Hunters story told from Rafe's point of view.
