

An exploration into a variety of ideas concerning traditional understandings of sacred law and shariah. This book introduces a new way of approaching the nature of shariah -- a way that pays close attention to the guidance of the Quran and the character of the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him). Anyone who is tired of the rigidity, dogmatism, and oppressiveness entailed by many facets of theologically and ideologically driven interpretations of Quranic guidance will find much on which to constructively reflect throughout the pages of Shariah: A Muslims Declaration of Independence. Bill (Anab) Whitehouse received an honors degree in Social Relations from Harvard University and a doctorate in education from the University of Toronto.
