

The brilliant novel from Pulitzer Prize winner Annie Proulx, author of THE SHIPPING NEWS. A richly textured story of one mans struggle to make good in the inhospitable ranch country of the Texas panhandle, told with razor wit and a masterly sense of place. An absolute corker of a novel which manages the dual feat of being a serious satire on the evils of global capitalism, and a personal comedy of Dickensian dimensions. A N Wilson, Daily Telegraph Some folks in the Texas panhandle do not like hog farms. But Bob Dollar, the newly-hired hog site scout for Global Pork Rind, intends to do his job. Bob must contend with tough men and women like ancient Freda Beautyrooms who controls a ranch he covets, and Ace Crouch, the windmill who defies the hog farms. As Bob settles in at La Von Fronks bunkhouse and lends a hand at Cy Freases Old Dog Cafe, he is forced to question everything. Proulxs own ace in the hole is her brilliance at evoking place and landscape. She sets about drawing the vast distances and parched flatlands of Texas with almost immeasurable skill. Alex Clark, Guardian Amusing, intriguing and disturbing. Mark Sanderson, Independent on Sunday A kind-hearted and intelligent novel. Daily Telegraph Proulx has a first class eye and ear. Adam Mars-Jones, Observer Brilliantly written. Peter Kemp, Sunday Times Funny and heartfelt. Scotsman
