

Narcissists are charming. Narcissists are cruel. Narcissists are masters of targeting vulnerable people who have already been weakened by previous abuse. They use many faces to gain your trust, but in the end, they only care about themselves. As the daughter of a narcissist mother, I couldn't wait to escape my childhood home. I went out into the world...and married a narcissist. Then another. Finally, I caught on to the pattern and realized why these people were pursuing me, and why I was falling for it. In this short book, I explain the basics of Narcissistic Personality Disorder, narcissistic abuse and re-victimization. I also share examples of my experiences with varying degrees of narcissism, and the lessons I learned. Narcissists really are very obvious and simple once you know what to look for.
