

The Gresham Chronicles records the romances of three sisters in thirteenth-century England. Claiming (Book 1, Rowena) Lady Rowena Gresham wants to be left alone to run her estates and live free of the destructive passion that had ruined her mother's life. However when Sir Saher de Bohun claims both her and her estates, it appears she has to accept him or lose her home. But Rowena has a plan, the discovery of which would incur both his displeasure and the King's wrath. Passion, hot enough to melt the heart of the iciest maiden, contained within. Claiming is a 23,000-word novella. Seducing (Book 2, Melisende) All Lady Melisende Gresham wants is to become a nun at Blakesmere Priory, the only place she's ever felt she truly belonged. However when Sir Galien de Forester appears with the blood of his father's killer on his hands, pursued by the King's men, he turns her world upside down. Melisende and Galien are as different as light is to dark. Yet, despite that, they are irresistibly drawn to each other. But is that attraction strong enough to allow them to forsake their long-held hopes and dreams? Passion, hot enough to banish the shadows of grief from the most vengeful knight, contained within. Seducing is a 25,000-word novella. Awakening (Book 3, Angelique) Lady Angelique Gresham is a wealthy widow who is determined to remain free of the cruelty and control of marriage, even to her ex-lover, Guy de Lacey. Determined to win her over, Guy tempts her with a night of passion in which she can realize her fantasies, but will one night be enough for Angelique to find the strength to trust not only Guy, but her own heart? Passion, hot enough to scorch the icy flints of a medieval castle, contained within. Awakening is a 17,000-word novella.
