

Jesus and His Disciples traveled by foot to tell the world about salvation. One very hot trek they were on was very tiring. They stopped for a rest. This story tells about what happened that hot day where the Broom Tree lived by the long watercourses. Peter found something that saddened and angered him. He went over to his Master, Jesus, and showed him something that he thought Jesus could help. Dear Reader, enjoy the fictionalized presentation of this Short Story that I was nudged through my faith to write about...once upon a time in our Saviors life.
