Twenty-two-year-old Isabel leaves for Munich for summer holidays to take a part in Youth International Meeting. Shes going to be absolutely on her own for two weeks, without her bossy father around. Coming here she doesnt expect her life is going to change entirely, because she is going to meet someone who will see through her. His name is David. Hes definitely older than the other guests. At the first sight of him blood rushes all over Isabels body and cold sweat covers her. She has never experienced such feeling to any guy before. Every time seeing him around her legs drag her to him as though he is her spatial drug. But to gain him, Isabel has to face the secret lurking behind his dark and cute eyes and she has to confront his night life. For the first time in her life Isabel gets to know the real taste of freedom.
